

Free Europe Aide Killed By a Train Near Munich

Mr. Schuckmann was born in Oldenburg, Germany, and emigrated to the United States as a boy.

MUNICH, Germany, April 6. (AP)—Henry V. Schuckmann, 36, of New York, director of the Free Europe Committee's accounting office in Munich, was killed by a train near his home Saturday.

A spokesman for Radio Free Europe, which is run by the committee, said Mr. Schuckmann was walking with his dog near his suburban Munich home when the train struck him. The spokesman said it was thought that Mr. Schuckmann might have been trying to save his dog from the train.
